The Air Force's Premier Conference Center

The General Jacob E. Smart Conference Center was dedicated on 20 October, 2011 in memory of General Jacob E. Smart, USAF, Retired. He is credited with planning the low-level raid over German-held oil refineries at Ploesti, Romania, during World War II and later helped to shape postwar Air Force doctrine. His decorations included the Army's Distinguished Service Cross, the Distinguished Service Medal, Legion of Merit, the Distinguished Flying Cross and four awards of the Air Medal.

The General Jacob E. Smart Conference Center, located on Joint Base Andrews, MD, is the Air Force's premier Conference Center. When hosting a meeting or conference in the National Capital Region, it provides a secure, state-of-the-art conference center that truly reflects the excellence of the Air Force.

Transform your meeting from ordinary to extraordinary by combining state-of-the-art video teleconferencing and information technologies with advanced and flexible meeting spaces. The Smart Center has nearly 46,000 sq. ft. of space and will accommodate 800 people.

The Smart Center hosts strategic and transformational planning sessions, allowing national leadership to assemble in a single location to examine and develop doctrine, strategy and policy. It provides the convenience of combining your meeting space and guest accommodations on Joint Base Andrews.
