

DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME FALL BACK

SAFETY TIPS

Less daylight means less visibility, drive safely

Check batteries in smoke & carbon monoxide alarms

Watch for pedestrians crossing the street

To align your body's circadian rhythm with the time change, adjust your sleep schedule three days prior by 15-20 minutes each night

TURN YOUR
CLOCKS BACK